++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Frequent showers or longer periods of rain. Early gales.

Today:
An unsettled day with frequent showers that merge to longer periods of rain at times, particularly across western hills. Northwest winds touching gale force at first. Best chance of limited brighter spells around the northern end of the Great Glen. Maximum temperature 11 deg C (52 deg F).

Tonight:
Continuing rather cloudy with frequent showers through the evening and night, which turn heavy at times. North to northwest breezes. Minimum temperature 4 deg C (39 deg F).

Tuesday:
More showers, but conditions improving with outbreaks expected to be lighter and less frequent, while brighter spells will appear more readily. North to northwest breezes. Maximum temperature 10 deg C (50 deg F).

Outlook for Wednesday to Friday:
Wednesday, Thursday bring a mix of bright spells between scattered relatively light showers. Winds brisk north to northwest Wednesday, easing Thursday, then backing west Friday as patchy rain develops.
